April 29, 2010

4:00 PM - 5:00 PM, 2nd Floor

New York State Center of Excellence in Bioinformatics and Life Sciences
701 Ellicott Street, Buffalo, NY 14203

PRESENTER:

Patrick Whalen

Chief Operating Officer

Buffalo Niagara Medical Campus

Join us this month for an update on the new Innovation Center (the four-story former Trico Products Corp. building - located at 640 Ellicott Street in Buffalo), a new research and development space available for life sciences and biotechnology companies seeking to be part of the thriving Buffalo Niagara Medical Campus (BNMC). The presentation, featuring speaker Patrick Whalen, Chief Operating Officer, BNMC, will include information regarding building features and collaboration opportunities with the Center of Excellence, Roswell Park, Buffalo General Hospital, Hauptman-Woodward Institute, and others.

Includes a tour of the facility!

To register, please contact Renata Bator (rmbator@buffalo.edu or 716-881-7588).

Lecture Followed By Beakers 'n Beer, 5PM - 7PM

Ulrich's Tavern, 674 Ellicott Street

Free beer, wings, and networking!
